The Testament of the Lord

TRANSLATED BY ALISTAIR STEWART

One of several ancient “Church Order” texts, The Testament is newly translated from Syriac—with an eye to Ethiopic manuscripts. Written in the first four centuries, it directs conduct, morality, ecclesiastical organization, discipline, and liturgical life. Beginning with an apocalyptic section in which the risen Lord himself addresses the reader, The Testament then describes the building of a church, the mode of appointment for clergy and monastics, and the conduct of liturgical services.

Theology as a Surprise

BISHOP MAXIM VASILJEVIC

“Bishop Maxim draws upon Scripture, the Fathers, and Liturgy to address perennial and yet very contemporary questions... And he does so in engagement with a diverse range of contemporary thinkers: philosophers, scientists, poets, artists, media figures, and film directors. The theological vision and call that emerges here is indeed a surprise, and one that brings the gospel to bear on all aspects of our life and existence.”

Orthodox Prayer Life

THE INTERIOR WAY

MATTHEW THE POOR

This volume evolved experientially: the fruit of fifty-five years of solitude by a contemporary desert monk besieged by prayer. Father Matta El-Maskeen (Matthew the Poor)'s prayer life initially was formed under the direction of the sayings of the Russian Fathers, and later expanded under the direction of other Fathers, both Eastern and Western. Desiring to share the lessons he learned, and compelled by the Holy Spirit to do so, he wrote this volume so that he might impart to his readers "a whole course" on the life of prayer.

Dragon's Wine and Angel's Bread

THE TEACHING OF EVAGRIUS PONTICUS ON ANGER AND MEEKNESS

GABRIEL BUNGE

Evagrius Ponticus (343-399 AD) spent sixteen years in the desert of Egypt, where he gained the gift of insight into the human soul. Evagrius' image of the human being, profoundly biblical, allowed for a perceptive understanding of anger, its causes, consequences and cures. His major study on the topic "not ordinarily covered in works of theology" appears here in the English language for the first time and offers timeless wisdom on struggling with this passion.

Despondency

THE SPIRITUAL TEACHING OF EVAGRIUS PONTICUS ON ACEDIA

GABRIEL BUNGE

This ultimately joyful work, meant to accompany Dragon's Wine and Angel's Bread, is one of the few books available in English to deal exclusively with the problem of despondency (acedia) and how it can be overcome. Bunge analyzes the views of Evagrius Ponticus, the famous "philosopher of the desert," on the dangers of acedia. Evagrius develops a sophisticated psychology which remains beneficial to us today.
